Pace and company

Question	My answer
How many nights in one place usually feels right?
What drains me: constant movement or too little variety?
After a day of company, do I want more or some space?
How much solo time do I need?

Comfort and routine

Need	High / Medium / Low
Private sleeping space
Quiet and reliable sleep
Internet for work / calls
Access to nature
Cafés and city life
